CLIL Programme 2019

Monday: An Introduction to CLIL

We will be looking at some of the main principles of CLIL, needs of students and teachers in the classroom and challenges which can arise teaching a CLIL syllabus.

Tuesday: Vocabulary and Communication in the CLIL Classroom

This session focuses on teaching content and non-content vocabulary, dealing with emergent language and how to promote communication in lessons.

Wednesday: Adapting Materials

This input session will look at how materials can be adapted and exploited to suit the needs of your students. We'll also look at how authentic materials can be modified to be used in the classroom.

Thursday: Productive and Receptive Skills in CLIL

Reading, writing, listening and speaking skills will be looked at within the context of a CLIL lesson in conjunction with using scaffolding activities.

Friday: Assessment in the CLIL Classroom

Our final session will look at how students are assessed (formal, informal and summative testing) monitored and the effects of backwash/forward wash.
